Your Partner for Safer Communities

OJP is the federal government's leading source of funding for state, tribal, and local criminal and juvenile justice agencies. Through its six program offices, OJP helps agencies improve their ability to enforce laws, prosecute offenders, protect their officers, and support crime victims.

OJP can make a positive impact in your community by funding research and providing statistics to improve understanding of crime and justice; equipping law enforcement officers; strengthening the juvenile justice system; addressing violence, substance abuse, and sexual offense issues; and enhancing services to victims.

Find out how we can help you at OJP.gov.
